Equity = A Commitment to Bold Action

Equity is the systemic, full, and exact access to opportunities, power, and resources that allow all people to achieve their full potential and thrive.

It begins with acknowledging systems of institutional racism and oppression that have led to the uneven distribution of benefits and harm in our communities.

An equitable decision-making process prioritizes community-led solutions, driven by those most affected.

Our actions & decisions will be guided by these principles:

- ✓ Equity is not equality. Equity requires developing, strengthening, and supporting policies and procedures that distribute and prioritize resources to those who have been historically and currently marginalized, including tribes
- ✓ Equity requires the elimination of systemic barriers that have been deeply entrenched in systems of inequality and oppression; and
- ✓ Equity achieves procedural and outcome fairness, promoting dignity, honor, and respect for all people.
